

THE BUCKHORN FINE ART AWARD

BUCKHORN
FESTIVAL
— of the —
ARTS
est. 1978

The Wagstaffes are hard-working, long-term volunteers at the Buckhorn Festival of the Arts. Since the 1980s they have dedicated countless hours to support and facilitate this and other fund-raising events at the Buckhorn Community Centre. They are also avid art collectors and promoters of the visual arts.

Buckhorn Fine Art Award Criteria

In keeping with the mandate of the Buckhorn Festival of the Arts to recognize and support contemporary artistic talent, one award of $500.00 is available annually:

To be awarded to an adult (age 17 or older), pursuing an education in the visual arts at a recognized Canadian art institution, who demonstrates community involvement and is in need of nurturing support and recognition.

Application requirements:

1. The Application Form, completed in full.
2. A one page cover letter, indicating:
  - A brief description of your work, your goals as an artist and your plan to achieve them

- Current art-related activities and community involvement, including any special affiliations (community and/or educational groups) and/or art-related awards or special recognition
- Proof that you are enrolled in a visual arts program at an accredited Canadian post-secondary institution.

3. Images can be emailed to info@buckhornartfestival.ca along with the completed application or a CD can be mailed containing 6 high-resolution images of current art work (completed within the last 3 years), and a list of each work's title, size and medium should accompany your application along with any other relevant support material.

Applicants who have been shortlisted will be notified before the end of July, and one (per applicant) of their submitted works will be selected for display at the Buckhorn Festival of the Arts. The selected art work must be delivered to the Buckhorn Community Centre on or before 8 pm Monday, August 8, 2022, and picked up at the close of the Festival (4 pm on Sunday, August 14, 2022).

The successful candidate will be selected by a panel of professional artists who are affiliated with the Buckhorn Festival of the Arts, and the award will be presented at the Buckhorn Festival of the Arts on Sunday, August 14, 2022 at 2:45 pm.
